Paddock walks

Phil's paddock plant recognition walks

These field walks aim to help you recognise a greater variety of plants in your paddocks, so you can tailor management actions for a beneficial farm business and environmental outcome.

Topics covered:

- Productive plants - EverGraze principles of right plant, right place, right purpose.
- Climate risk ready plants - plants that have a role to play in adapting your farm business to withstand climate risks and variability.
- Ecosystem function plants - roles benefiting the environment.
